

Teaching Social and Emotional Skills

The Focus on Social and Emotional Learning program is intended for flexible implementation across 30 weeks of instruction in the school year.

CASEL's five (5) competencies provide the framework for each grade level's books and lesson plans. Each competency is "kicked off" with an introductory lesson plan that showcases the concept and hooks the student into learning more about it.

Each of the competencies is then broken down into CASEL's suggested four to six (4-6) subcategories of skills and knowledge for student learning. In each of these subcategories, one (1) weekly lesson plan has been provided. For each lesson plan, one to two (1-2) age-appropriate fiction and/or nonfiction books have been provided to serve as the literacy anchor for the SEL skill.

The lessons are 20-30 minutes in length. They have a modular design in "chunks" that can be pulled apart and implemented flexibly according to the needs of the students and teacher.
